

Ten Commandments

Mark Graham

Oh there are Ten Commandments,
God gave Ten Commandments,
and those Ten Commandments
teach us right from wrong.
Yes there are Ten Commandments
and those Ten Commandments
teach us how to live our whole life long.

One is, no gods before me,
Two is no graven image,
Three is do not take my name in vain.
Four is keep the Sabbath holy,
Five is, honor your parents,
Now that's half the commandments
so we'll sing it again!

Oh there are Ten Commandments,
God gave Ten Commandments,
and those Ten Commandments
teach us right from wrong.
Yes there are Ten Commandments
and those Ten Commandments
teach us how to live our whole life long.
They teach us how to live
our whole life long!

Six is, you shall not kill and Seven is, no adult-ry,
Eight is, you shall not steal, and then,
Nine is, do not bear false witness,
Ten is, you shall not covet,
Now that's all the commandments
so we'll sing it again!

Oh there are Ten Commandments,
God gave Ten Commandments,
and those Ten Commandments
teach us right from wrong.
Yes there are Ten Commandments
and those Ten Commandments
teach us how to live our whole life long.
They teach us how to live
our whole life long!
